DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-19 are pending in this application.

Drawings

1. The drawings were received on 2/27/04. These drawings are acceptable.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 1-19 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-29 of copending Application No. 10/652,104, optionally in view of Dawson et al (US 4,490,557). Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the sole difference between the herein claimed process and the above referenced claimed process is the mode of cracking ester. In the above patent application, the cracking is done using the heat as compared to via heat in a thin film evaporation in herein. Inasmuch as cracking of ester is known to be done by heat, it would have been prima facie obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to select suitable vessel for conducting the same, absent evidence to the contrary. Alternatively, Dawson et al is expressly teaching that cracking by heat in a thin film evaporation is old in the art, see for example, columns 9-11.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

DE 3,500,773, pages 5-6, Table 1, JP 63-190862, page 675, column 2 and Chang et al(Macromolecules, 1993), abstract, are cited to show the state of the art.
